START HERE Academy (SHA) returns to Indianapolis in 2024! SHA debuted at GPX Charlotte in September 2022, bringing hundreds of enthusiastic attendees. Response was overwhelmingly positive: 82% said they would attend another SHA; 91% indicated they were more inclined to make a purchase at GPX.

Individual feedback we received from attendees let us know that SHA is providing a forum they can truly use to improve their products, processes and acumen as a businessperson: “Engaging and real.” – “Info I can use immediately.” – “Relatable and genuine.” – “Very informative for business owners at every level.” In 2024, SHA will take place at GPX Indianapolis on October 2nd from 4-8 p.m. (doors open at 3). The program provides valuable start-up resources for makers and crafters looking to turn their hobby into a business, and for those already in the business looking at expanding into new markets with new products and processes.

Exhibiting sponsors will be given an opportunity to address the crowd with educational information on their products and those products’ applications and potential markets. They will also have a table to showcase their samples, meet with attendees, give away prizes, and include items in a powerful attendee “Swag Bag of Possibilities”. This is a unique opportunity to develop new and lifelong customers who will always appreciate your support of their endeavors.
